Tribal Youth Programs Performance Measures

By: Jazmone Wilkerson, Program Manager
Chelsea Logan, Program Manager
Leannetta Jessie, Deputy Associate Administrator

Vision

OJJDP envisions a nation where all children are free from crime and violence. Youth contact with the justice system should be rare, fair, and beneficial.

Mission

OJJDP provides national leadership, coordination, and resources to prevent and respond to youth delinquency and victimization. The Office helps states, localities, and Tribes develop effective and equitable juvenile justice systems that create safer communities and empower youth to lead productive lives.

Discussion Questions

If you had a magic wand:

- What do you think about the performance measures overall?
- Which performance measures do you think accurately represents Tribal Youth Programs?
- Which performance measures do you think are not relevant and should be deleted? Why?
- Do you believe the performance measures accurately reflect Tribal Youth Programs? Why?
- Do you have suggestions for other questions that should be added?
- Anything else you want us to know?
